MEDICARE LOW-INCOME SUBSIDY

Does Your Family Need “Extra Help” with Prescription Drug Costs?

Medicare Part D enrollees with limited income and resources can apply for the Low-Income Subsidy to help pay related premiums, deductible and copayments. To apply, a beneficiary must:

- 1 Gather records about income and resources (for both beneficiary and spouse, if married and living together).
- 2 Complete the application (Form SSA-1020):
 - at www.socialsecurity.gov/extrahelp;
 - by calling Social Security 1.800.772.1213 (or TTY 1.800.325.0778);
 - or by visiting the local Social Security office.
- 3 Once qualified, join an approved prescription drug plan.
